SHADES OF AUTUMN. Pat. 542. Bicolor; red, yellow and blush. $2.00

YELLOW CURLS. Pure yellow, very double flowers. A rapidly growing bush. $2.00

BROWNELL CLIMBING SUB-ZERO ROSES

APRICOT GLOW. Pat. 200. Double, coppery pink flowers in abundant clusters. $2.50

COPPER GLOW. Pat. 458. Deep coppery orange; delightful spicy fragrance. $2.50

GOLDEN CLIMBER (Mrs. A. C. James.) Supreme yellow; fragrant. Very long, stiff stems. $2.50

GOLDEN GLOW. Pat. 263. Spectrum-yellow, fragrant, making a mass color display. $2.50

PEARLY WHITE. Gracefully petaled, semi-double, large, all-white Rose. $2.50

FLORIBUNDAS

Great clusters of flowers in a continuous procession that is almost unbelievable, hardiness and an indifference to soil and climate characterize the versatile Floribundas. They are superb for mass color or planted singly among evergreen shrubs. It is difficult to imagine anything more attractive than a bushy low hedge loaded with Roses throughout much of the year.

BETTY PRIOR. Pat. 340. Outside of petals dark carmine; inside several shades lighter. Blooms in large clusters on strong stems. 5 petals. $1.50

DONALD PRIOR. Pat. 377. Large clusters of red flowers on branching plants about 1½ feet high. Damask fragrance. Continuous blooms. $1.50

FASHION. A.A.R.S. Pat. 789. Oriental-red buds open into miniature Hybrid Teas up to 3 inches across. Blends into a lighter coral suffused with gold. Delightful scent. $2.50

GOLDILOCKS. Pat. 672. Golden yellow buds resembling miniature Hybrid Teas. Dark, glossy foliage is a nice background for the handsome flowers. $2.00

GLORIA MUNDI. Large, fully double, lasting orange-scarlet flowers borne in clusters. $1.50

PINOCCHIO. Pat. 484. Bright salmon-pink, creating a sensation wherever shown. Exquisite in form and size. Excellent where a miniature is desired. $2.00

HARDY CLIMBERS

BLAZE. Vivid scarlet blooms over a long period. $2.00

MME. GREGOIRE STAECHELIN. Vigorous plant producing quantities of delicate pink blooms shaded carmine on the outside. Long, attractive buds; very fragrant. $2.00

NEW DAWN. The everblooming Dr. W. Van Fleet. Just like it in soft pink color, but blooms all summer. $2.00

PAUL'S SCARLET CLIMBER. Intensely red flowers borne in loose clusters. Highly recommended. Best used as a pillar because of restricted height. $2.00

SILVER MOON. Handsome foliage and large, saucer-shaped, moon-white blooms with brilliant yellow centers. $2.00

EVERBLOOMING CLIMBERS

ALOHA. Pat. 948. Very dark, waxy foliage makes a solid background. Deep rose-pink blooms of enormous size. $2.50

CL. ETOILE DE HOLLANDE. Crimson flowers with fine fragrance. $2.50

CL. KAISERIN AUGUSTE VIKTORIA. White flowers; fragrant. $2.50

CL. PEACE. Pat. 932. Full, ovoid bud, deep yellow with edges of petals picoteed cerise. $2.50

CL. PRES. HOOVER. Multi-colored pink, red, yellow and buff. Vigorous. $2.50

CL. RADIANCE. Large flowers of the Radiance type. Very hardy. $2.50

CL. TALISMAN. Bicolor flowers like the original, ranging from rich scarlet and gold to rose and pale yellow. $2.50

SHRUB ROSE

HUGONIS. Golden yellow, single flowers on long arching branches. $2.00

WE ARE particularly proud of our selection of Roses this year, and we think you will be proud of them, too, when they bloom in your garden.

We have included some of the finest new varieties, as well as the old reliable favorites. These are Number 1 grade, field-grown, budded plants, well established in pots so that they can be easily moved at any time after the planting season opens.

Why not make your selections immediately? A call to us at Towson 4600 will reserve the Roses of your choice!

Rose Growing

The simple recipe for growing fine Roses is "plant only the best." We can truthfully say that our plants are in this category. Since they are potted, it is a simple operation to transfer them from the pot into your garden. Roses prefer a good garden loam with a generous supply of organic matter. Well-rotted cow manure is preferable.

Beautiful AZALEAS
for Your Spring Garden

PRICES:
Kurume Azaleas, Strong Plants from

AZALEA HINOMAYO

GHENT AZALEAS

Ghent Azaleas are one of the most distinguished groups in the entire Azalea family. Their appeal covers a wide range of desirability in bloom, fragrance, and attractive fall coloring, which makes them unlike any other type. In mass plantings the effect is most striking; their beauty seems almost ethereal.

Planted with rhododendrons, the Ghents give a fine display, for they thrive best in the same sort of location.

We have a limited number of fine specimens in the following varieties:

COCCINEA SPECIOSA. Showy orange-red.
IGNAEA NOVA. Carmine flushed orange.
PUCELLE. Purplish red.
WILLIAM III. Orange and rose.

THE LOVELY KURUME AZALEAS

The exquisite Kurume Azaleas burst forth in profusion in May, ranging in color from purest white through all the lovely tones of the rainbow.

The varieties we particularly recommend are the popular Snow, pure white; Lavender Queen, lavender; Hinomayo, pink; Hinodegiri, scarlet; Salmon Beauty, salmon. They may be planted now with the assurance of abundant blossoms this spring.

Bleeding-Hearts
(DICENTRA SPECTABILIS)

The old-fashioned Bleeding-hearts that everyone loves are among the most graceful of all spring-flowering plants. The beauty of their drooping sprays of heart-shaped pink flowers makes them a valued asset. The plants grow 2 feet tall and often as broad; they live for many years and need practically no care at all. Had you thought of a Bleeding-heart for that spot where you need a dash of color? Particularly when planted near spring-flowering shrubs and bulbs, it will made a delightful picture. We are offering lovely plants in 6-inch pots at $2.00 each. Why not order several today?
